

EA Library Snap Shot 2016-2017

Fostering Information Literacy

Inspiring Questions - Welcoming Everyone

CURRICULUM CONNECTIONS

The library continues to support classes across all subject areas:

- English: Pecha Kucha; Illustrated books, Multicultural and Classroom Reads projects.
- History: Research Projects, "Prove to Me" and Image Analysis by Maine Historical Society.
- Art: Hosted Fine Arts Night and organized trip to view animated film The Red Turtle.
- Science: Provided research instruction and purchased classroom sets of The World Without Us and Omnivore's Dilemma.
- Music: Hosted several performances.
- Business Classes: Arranged for Garvan Donegan, Waterville Senior Economic Development Specialist to present.
- Health: Arranged for Sue Palumbo from Inland Hospital to speak about nutrition.

Created the Editing Center (Video and Recording)

New equipment used extensively in both history and English assignments with requests for next year from JMG and Business.

STATISTICS

- 346 New Books
- 426 Summer Checkouts
- 4,518 Total Checkouts for Year
- 15,940 Total Student Visits

PROGRAMS

The E.A. Library is more than just books!!!

- Shakespeare: David Greenham supported by Maine Humanities Council and Maine State Library did a Shakespearean presentation to 70 students.
- Mid Maine Global Forum: Khalid Albaih, political cartoonist from Sudan.
- Hosted Adotei Akwei, Managing Director of Government Relations for Amnesty International Washington D.C.
- Wellness: Hosted Faculty Book Swap and Spring Plant Swap.
- New Program: Celebrating Girls and Women to coincide with National History Month.

AUTHOR VISITS

- Cal Armistead author of Being Henry David
- Terry Farish author of The Good Braider and The Beginning and End of The World

BREAKFAST BOOK CLUB 7 a.m. Wednesday Mornings

Book buying trip to Barnes and Nobles - 14 members